

Primary Questionnaire

Question 1 Religions try to show people the best way to live.	Suppose a king or queen sent out messengers to find out the best way to live, and they asked you. What would you tell them?
Question 2 Some people feel that God can help you, or cheer you up, or warn you, or that God is watching you.	Have you ever felt someone or something near you in this kind of way? Write about how you felt.
Question 3 Here are two comments about death ‘When we die, we lie in the grave, and I’m afraid that’s the end of us.’ ‘I think dying is like being born. You leave the place you know, but you go to a wonderful place you don’t know.’	What are your thoughts about death, and life after death?

Question 4 At school, in RE, you learn about Jesus, and perhaps about the Buddha, Moses or Muhammad (pbuh).	Do you enjoy these bits of school? Can you say why? Please tell us what you like about RE.
Question 5 Religions can bring peace and harmony, but people also fight about religion.	What do you think can help people find peace and harmony?
Question 6 A big religious question is about what God is like.	What are your own thoughts and beliefs about God?

Question 7 Some people pray many times a day, others not at all.	If you could talk or write a letter to God, what would you say? What questions would you ask?
Question 8 Religions sometimes teach their followers about freedom, truth, justice, love and forgiveness.	Who has taught you about these things? What have you learned?
Question 9 Religions often give their followers a vision of a perfect world.	If you could dream a better world, and make it real, what would your dream be like? Draw a picture or make up a symbol to show your dream.