

Declaration of Human Rights for children

We are all born free and equal.

We all have our own thoughts and ideas. We should all be treated the same way.

The rights belong to everyone, whatever our differences.

We have the right to believe in whatever we like,

to have a religion,

to change it if we wish.

We all have the right to make up
our own minds,

to think what we
like, to say what we think,

and to share our ideas with other people.

We have a duty to other people, and we should protect their rights and freedoms.

Nobody can take these rights and freedoms away from us.

What do these words and pictures make you think about?
