What have you created?

I wonder, have you ever created something that you were really proud of? Maybe you made something out of Lego, created an exciting picture or even made something out of clay.

What do Christians believe?

Christians believe that God made the world and that Genesis, the first book in the Bible describes how this happened. Some Christians believe it happened exactly as it is written in the Bible while others think that this story helps them to understand more about how God created the world.
