RS helps you see other people's point of view and have a wider knowledge of different religions

Neve Jones (Student)
What I love about RS is it brings wider understanding of other beliefs and practices. The subject knowledge empowers you to have confidence and dialogue with people from different cultures.

Toby Hodgson (Student)

RS has broadened his perspective on how he sees life.

Helen Hodgson (Mum)
"RS has helped with understanding ethical, philosophical and religious viewpoints. I have loved the different visits to the Mosque and Church and all the varied speakers we have had in class"
Niamh Baker (student)

"We are very pleased with the teacher feedback in parents evening and proud of her exercise book. It has caused so many insightful and challenging discussions at home around the dinner table."

Yvonne Baker (Mum)
“Instead of looking at people in a judging manner, you are encouraged to think critically and challenged to think about alternative views appreciating the objectivity of life.”

Ella Todd (Student)
"RS has broadened my thinking and to see things with a more theological perspective. It challenges me to think more objectively and consider other people’s culture and beliefs"
Alice Whitten (Student)
