

Charlie and Blue ask about Allah and creation

Do you have a garden? Or can you see some green space from your window? What can you see growing? Do you have a favourite plant? Is it something to look at or does it give something to eat? Draw your favourites in the first box and write the name in the second box.

Muslims believe people should take care of the world. Draw a way you take care of the world below.

Why should we look after the world?

Seyed loves looking after his garden. He is a Muslim. He likes to look after the world. Muslims believe they must look after the world for God. What is the word for this (Seyed tells us in the film)?

Draw or write a way that Seyed looks after the world.

Prophet Muhammad and the dog

Seyed tells a story in the film. Listen to the story again. He talks about a man who gets water from a well for a thirsty dog.

Write what you think is the important message in this story in the speech bubble.
