Discovering Jesus in the Gospels

One reason why the Bible is so important to Christians is because it enables them to learn about Jesus. Understanding who Jesus was, what he taught through his words and his actions is essential to Christians as they try to live their lives according to Jesus' example. The four Gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John tell Christians the most about Jesus.

Use a Bible if you have one, a general Google search or www.biblegateway.com to look for examples of Jesus doing the following things. Write down the Bible reference and a brief title or description of the incident. How examples of each can you find and how many points can you score?

Helping the poor (1)	Defending women's rights (2)	Feeding the hungry (3)
Being sad (1)	Criticising rich people (1)	Healing or restoring life to the dead (2)
Challenging prejudice or discrimination (1)	Helping his mother out (5)	Upsetting someone in authority (3)
Causing offence about religious traditions (2)	Challenging authority (2)	TOTAL POINTS:

Ask someone in your house to check your answers. Can they give you any more ideas? How about comparing your ideas with a friend from your class by email? If you are chatting with classmates online, ask how they got on and see how your score compares with theirs.

Gimme Five!

After this research on Jesus, what 5 adjectives would you use to sum him up? Put the one you feel is most important in the centre.

Is the Bible still relevant today?

How far do you agree or disagree with these statements?

Statement	Agree/disagree scale (circle one for each statement)				My reasons/ Evidence for my views
	Strongly agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly disagree
If the Bible was discovered nowadays no one would believe its contents
The Bible is the Word of God, it is the truth which is eternal and unquestionable
Crucial parts of the Bible such as the creation account in Genesis have been disproven by science, showing that the Bible is outdated
The Bible contains codes for living that guide people to lead good lives – this can never be irrelevant.
