Resourcing RE in your school

2.2

Checklist to support schools in addressing the question, 'Are we using a sufficiently wide range of resources in RE?'

Using the following checklist of various types of RE resource, identify:

- the overall extent to which you currently use them (i.e. high, medium or low use)
- the strengths and weaknesses of particular resources within these types
- the types of resource whose use needs further development
- which resources can be used to support teachers whose specialism is other than RE.

Resource type	Extent of use H = high M = medium L = low	Strengths and weaknesses of particular resources currently used	Needing development	Support for non-specialists
