

Resource 6.6

EVALUATING ARGUMENTS

Reflect, apply and sum up

Example	Why might some people see this as harmful?	What did I think before learning about ahimsa?	Has my viewpoint changed? How? Why? Or why not?	How might a Hindu who tries to live by the principle of ahimsa respond to this situation? Give some reasons and examples
 Gossiping about a classmate online
 Eating a cheeseburger
 Stomping on an ant on purpose
 Chopping down a tree
 Calling someone nasty names

Resource 6.6

EVALUATING ARGUMENTS

Reflect, apply and sum up

Example	Why might some people see this as harmful?	What did I think before learning about ahimsa?	Has my viewpoint changed? How? Why? Or why not?	How might a Hindu who tries to live by the principle of ahimsa respond to this situation? Give some reasons and examples
 Hitting someone
 Thinking about doing something mean
 Stealing money
 Ignoring a stray dog

3 2 1 to sum up

3 things I have learnt about ahimsa

2 things that have challenged my thinking ...

1 thing I would like to find out ...