

Resource 6.4

Podcast planning sheet

Our production team name:

Who is playing which role?

(Everybody needs a speaking part – you could all be presenters. Or you might choose to divide different roles between you, including presenter, interviewer, interviewee, guest expert and so on.)

Podcast Part 1: What is the Japji?

Which information will we be including about what the Japji is? How will we tell our listeners (presenter telling the audience/including an interview/through a guest expert/another way)?

Podcast Part 2: What does the Japji mean for Sikh people?

Which information will we be including about what the Japji means for Sikh people? How will we tell our listeners (presenter telling the audience/through an interview/through a guest expert/another way)?

Podcast Part 3: What does the Japji contain?

What information will we be including about the words in the Japji and their meaning? How will we tell our listeners (presenter telling the audience/through an interview/through a guest expert/another way)?

Podcast Part 4: Extra information

What else would we like our listeners to hear about the Japji? How will we tell them?

Key words to use

Decide where you will use each one in the podcast: gurmukh, Guru, Hukam, Ik Onkar, Japji, manmukh, morning, spiritual

Which sound effects and jingles will you use?