

RESOURCE 6.6

Four contemporary Hindu gurus: links and resources

Through the power of the internet and social media, many Hindu gurus are now well known across the world. Their teachings reach beyond their homeland of India, and they often play leading roles in promoting humanitarian causes. Below are the links to enable you to find out more about the four influential living gurus featured on pages 28–29 in the book.

Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar

Links:

- For the story of Gurudev, see www.youtube.com/watch?v=QyqUBgl4ogs&t=13s
- Gurudev's YouTube channel has 2.5 million subscribers: www.youtube.com/@Gurudev
- He has six million followers on Facebook: www.facebook.com/gurudev
- His website: www.srisriravishankar.org
- The Art of Living UK www.artofliving.org/uk-en

Sadhguru

Links:

- The Isha Foundation: isha.sadhguru.org/uk/en
- Sadhguru has 9.4 million followers on Facebook: www.facebook.com/sadhguru and 4 million followers on Twitter: twitter.com/SadhguruJV where he offers daily wisdom.
- Save Soil campaign: consciousplanet.org and twitter.com/cpsavesoil

Anandmurti Gurumaa

Links:

- gurumaa.com
- gurumaa.com/shakti

Satguru Sri Mata Amritanandamayi Devi

Links:

- Amma's website: www.amma.org
- Find out more about MAM: www.amritapuri.org
- Find out more about Embracing the World: www.embracingtheworld.org and their youth wing, AYUDH, www.embracingtheworld.org/ayudh

RE Today is not responsible for external websites. Always check these links are valid and safe before sharing with students or staff. Photo of Gurumaa provided by kind permission Rishi Chaitanya Ashram. Others from Shutterstock: Giacomo Morini, lev radin, Eric Fahrner.