

Guidance for teacher members on SACREs for making judgements about RE on primary school websites:

Exceptional practice	Green (good or better RE)	Amber (unclear as to the quality of RE)	Red (concerns as to whether RE is being taught)
Excellent levels of detail on RE curriculum plans, which may include additional information about what will happen in RE lessons. You may also see reference to skills being taught and how it builds on prior learning.	The level of detail published on the RE curriculum plans for each year group is at least comparable to that for foundation subjects such as History and Geography (even if the subject is called something else)	The level of detail published on the RE curriculum is not comparable to that for foundation subjects such as History and Geography	The curriculum map does not give the reader a clear indication of what will be taught. For example, A list of religions or belief is provided with no indication about the content of the study
There is a clear and detailed statement of their compliance with their Agreed Syllabus or in the case of academies, the syllabus they have chosen to follow.
